MEXICAN REVOLTS DUE TO GRAFTERS

Gen. Obregon Says Outbreaks Are by Men Who Fear Punishment.

BONILLAS PREDICTS MORE

Calls Present Regime Military and Thinks Obregon Cannot Last Long.

NOGALIA, Ariz., July 8.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon in a statement here to-day regarding reports of revolts in parts of Mexico against the de facto Government said the revolting Generals were former Carranza adherents who feared punishment by the present Government on graft charges.

The revolts, the General said, are confined to two or three local sections and are regarded as a bluff, preceding flight of the revolting parties to the mountains as fugitives from justice.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—A conflict of irreconcilable elements that make up the present regime in Mexico is certain to break out in the near future, Ignacio Bonillas, former Mexican Ambassador to the United States, declared here to-day in discussing Mexican affairs and the recent revolution.

"The great mass of people of Mexico are tired of revolution and of military rule," the former Ambassador said. "They greatly desire peace and a Government of civilians, with the army solely as the supporter and guarantor of orderly civil government, as other modern nations do. The Obregon coup was purely military. Obregon himself knew that the people were overwhelmingly in favor of a civilian as President, and he tried to win this support by putting aside his military rank."

"The present regime in Mexico is made up of heterogeneous elements that cannot be reconciled for long. The only elimination of Gen. Pablo Gonzalez by the Obregonistas after they had a thin to precipitate the coup that led in the killing of the President in indication of what will come."

Mr. Bonillas said that while Obregon was a strong man he was not strong enough to hold power in Mexico during a protracted period of reconstruction.

MEXICO CITY, July 7.—Elias L. Torres of El Paso, who conferred on behalf of the provisional Government with Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, with regard to an armistice, has announced that Villa has modified his peace terms and that conciliation is likely, says the Eccelesior.

Provisional President de la Huerta said there would be more uprisings and that the revolts thus far had been motivated by men fearing they would be held responsible for their past acts.

MORE HEARINGS FOR OIL MEN IN MEXICO

Country's Petroleum Export Exceeds Rest of World.

MEXICO CITY, July 8.—Petroleum men will be given further hearings in an effort to adjust the differences between them and the Government. Provisional President de la Huerta told newspaper correspondents to-day.

Mexico will export during 1920 more oil than the rest of the world, including the United States, according to estimates made by George Blardone, the Tampico oil statistician. He declares that Mexico's exportations for the year will be between 120,000,000 and 135,000,000 barrels, his figures being based upon the record breaking production of oil in this country for the first five months of 1920. Blardone says about 100,000,000 barrels will go to the United States.

Blardone declares he has collected data from unofficial but authoritative figures which show that Mexican petroleum exports for the first five months of this year were 48,417,167 barrels, compared with 28,235,039 barrels during the same period of 1919. Exports for May alone are given as 12,520,568 barrels, which is nearly double the shipments for May, 1919, and sets the world's record for one month's production.

The three leading exporting companies for May, 1920, were the Huasteca, 2,432,455 barrels; Aguilera, 1,599,942; and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, 1,022,122. The daily average for May exports, it is said, was 368,792 barrels.

MOTORS FOR LINER'S CREW.

Danish Strike Breakers Will Sail the Frederick VII. Back.

The patriotic Danes, including several millionaires, who as part of the crew of the Scandinavian-American liner Frederick VII, helped to bring her to this port from Copenhagen two weeks ago, returned with her yesterday, sticking to their temporary jobs. They went down to the pier in limousines, roadsters and taxicabs, all filled with presents for the folks in Denmark. Four took a trip to the Pacific coast.

WAR HERO HUSBAND IS HELD IN MURDERS

Chicago Police Puzzled by Slaying of Accused Man's Wife and a Stranger.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Lieut. Carl Wanderer, praised a month ago for the bravery he displayed in killing the unidentified man who, he said, had murdered Mrs. Wanderer, is in a cell to-day as the principal figure in what the Chicago police call "the most mysterious murder case Chicago has had in years."

Early on June 22 neighbors, aroused by shots in the vestibule of the Wanderer apartments, found the Lieutenant standing over the bodies of his pretty young wife and a roughly dressed youth with an army pistol in his hand. The man was dead. Mrs. Wanderer was unconscious and dying. To detectives Wanderer said the young man, whom no one has yet identified, had followed him and his wife into the vestibule as they were returning from a theatre.

"He told us to hold up our hands," Wanderer said. "My wife started to turn on the light and he shot her. Then I shot and killed him."

After two weeks of investigation the Chicago police find themselves trying to find a solution to the following: Was the killing of Lieut. Carl Wanderer's wife an accident, as he said? Who was the ragged man of mystery slain in the desperate struggle in Wanderer's hallway? Why did Wanderer attempt to deceive the police as to the ownership of the pistol found beside the dead man's body?

Two important admissions were made by Wanderer to-day which may lead, the police believe, to a quick solution of the mystery. The first was that he had carried both the automatic pistols found on the scene, the one in his hand, the other beside the dead man. The latter, Wanderer said, had seized one pistol and started to shoot, a fact which he withheld to protect his cousin, who owned one of the weapons.

Wanderer has told thirteen different versions of the slaying since the tragedy. The police have discovered a witness who declares Wanderer and his wife did go to the "movies" on the night of the slaying, as Wanderer told the authorities.

Wanderer was unmercifully grilled by detectives to-day for eight hours. The young lieutenant, who was one of Chicago's heroes in the recent war, insisted to-day that he was tired of home life. He denied emphatically that the shooting of his wife in any way climaxed a "triangle affair."

100,000 FARMHANDS MOVE.

Harvest Workers Recruited by Agriculture Department.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A band army of 100,000 farmhands recruited and organized by the Department of Agriculture is moving northward across the Western wheat belt harvesting the nation's grain crop in better time than in many years, according to reports to-day to the department.

"For the first time in years farmers have not been handicapped through labor shortages," Director Taylor of the Farm Bureau said. Attracted by a wage of $7 for a ten-hour day, thousands of workers from Atlantic and Allegheny regions have gone west of the Mississippi River to join the harvest drive, according to department officials.

WILL TRAIN TRADE ARMY.

Secretary Alexander to Lecture at Foreign Commerce School.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Secretary of Commerce Alexander, Chairman Benson of the Shipping Board, Ambassador Pezet of Peru and Senator Fletcher of Florida are among those who have agreed to lecture at the first session of the summer school of Pan-American and foreign commerce, it was announced to-day. The school will open a five week term July 19.

The purpose of the school, as announced by its organizers, is to train men and women for service in the field of foreign trade, either as instructors at educational institutions at home or as actual commercial representatives. Its sponsors declare it will be known as "the Plattsburg of foreign trade."

AIR MAIL LINES FOR SALE.

Private Concerns Will Be Asked for Bids.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Experiments are to be made by the Postoffice Department in the transportation of air mail by private concerns under contracts similar to those let to railroad companies, it was said to-day. Request will be made by the department within a few days for bids for the carrying of air mail on several new routes.

The present air mail routes, such as Chicago-New York and the Washington-New York line, will continue to be operated by the Government.

Georgia May Move Capital.

ATLANTA, July 8.—The Georgia Senate to-day passed a resolution providing for submission to voters of the State on September 8 of a proposal to move the capital from Atlanta to Macon. The resolution now goes to the House.

SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT OF THE Lawyers Mortgage Company

Richard M. Hurd, President

JULY 1, 1920.

Safety to investors is the keynote of the Company's business. Throughout the greatest war in history not a dollar has been lost by the holders of our Guaranteed Mortgages.
